

I am a K-LOVE listener. This station encourages me and helps me be a more cheerful and compassionate person to others in my community. I don't think another station could accomplish this. K-LOVE is in the public's best interest because it is listener-supported, so there are enough people listening to fund the station's operation.